

Advantage Object and Sub-Object Codes

Updated 07/2023

This document provides a list of the State of Wyoming’s object and sub-object codes. This information is organized into a table that has three layers of information.

All series are delineated by a dark grey fill and identify the major subject, otherwise known as object class. The description of the series applies to all object and sub-objects within the series.

Example:

100 Series†	PERSONAL SERVICES All salary and wage compensation for state officers and employees, whether permanent or temporary, whether on an annual, hourly, or day wage; institutional incentive pay, and employee benefit programs in which the State participates on a percentage of employee earnings basis.

Objects are delineated by light grey fill and define a subset of topics within a series. The description of the object applies to all sub-objects within that object.

Example:

0101†	Salaries: Set by Law

0256†		Court Assessed Judgements and Other Fixed Charges The requirement to W-2 or 1099 report and withhold taxes is determined by reference to the underlying claim and the type of relief that is sought. Therefore, it may be necessary to allocate the damages awarded in the settlement agreement to determine the dollar amount, if any, that must be reported and/or withheld for tax purposes. Definitions Physical Injury: Bodily harm or hurt, excluding mental or emotional distress. Non-physical injury: Mental or emotional distress. Emotional distress must be tied to some physical symptoms (e.g. insomnia, headaches, stomach disorders) resulting from such distress. Statutory or Constitutional violation claims: These can be claims like employment discrimination, violation of procedural rights, etc. These are independent claims from a claim of physical injury or emotional distress.
M	3	0256.02†	Personal Injury Awards Punitive Damages Damages awarded over and above the amount necessary to compensate an injured party for the actual loss. Damages awarded as punishment for willful, malicious or fraudulent behavior. Report all punitive damage awards.

			Damage Awards for Non-physical Injuries Emotional distress awards are to be reported even though they are tied to a physical injury or have a physical manifestation. Awards for violation of Statutory or Constitutional Rights Generally report all compensatory damages for nonphysical injuries or sickness, such as employment discrimination, libel, slander, defamation, damage to reputation or character discrimination and emotional distress such as pain and suffering. Note: Settlements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The IRS is likely to tie any settlement related to an employment to back pay, front pay, and severance pay.</li> <li>• Therefore, parties should be extremely careful to delineate in settlement agreements the nature of the claim or claims being settled. Often, settlements may be tied both to salary and to a payment which essentially applies to practicality/risk management of eliminating extracted litigation. Settlement agreements should clearly allocate the nature of the funds.</li> <li>• Go to the underlying claims if the settlement agreement does not clearly set out the type of compensation.</li> </ul> Severance Pay/Back Pay/Front Pay An award for back pay is treated in the same manner as salary or wage payments. Severance Pay/Back Pay/Front Pay: Pay awards or settlements for pay are subject to income tax withholdings and should be paid through payroll for W-2 reporting. (See 0100 series object codes.)
		0256.03†	Non-Physical Personal Injury Awards Non-punitive damages Compensatory or actual damages that compensate an injured party for the injury sustained and that make good or replace the loss caused by the wrong or injury are not 1099 reportable. Non-punitive damages for emotional distress and other non-physical injuries or sickness to the extent attributable to a physical injury or sickness are not 1099 reportable. Non-punitive damages for emotional distress to the extent of the amount paid for medical care attributable to emotional distress (i.e. the actual amount paid for medical expenses for treatment of the emotional distress) are not 1099 reportable.
M	14	0256.06†	Attorney Fees: Gross Proceeds Payments If paying a settlement amount to an attorney on behalf of the claimant, to an attorney and one or more other person or when the payment is made payable only to an attorney for services performed for others it is a “gross proceeds payment” and reported in Box 14 on a 1099.
		0256.07	Consumer Protection Matters
		0256.08†	Property Damage Claims: Claimant An award for harm caused by the state to a claimant’s capital assets. A payment by the state is intended to make the claimant “whole”. Thus, payments to claimants for property damage are not reportable.

M	9	0256.09 †	Property Damage Claims: Other If making settlement for property damage claims payable to an organization other than the claimant. Example: Paying the auto repair shop directly for the damages to the claimant's property. Exception: If making payment to an attorney, follow the rules for "gross proceeds payments" in object/sub-object code 0256.06.
